CREATING COMMUNITIES

1979: Launched the Institute for the Protection of Gay and Lesbian Youth

1983-1987: First drop-in centers on 23rd St then West St & Harvey Milk High School is Founded

1988: Renamed Hetrick-Martin Institute

1992: Moved to 2 Astor Place

2012: HMI: New Jersey opens in Newark

2013: Founded the Center for LGBTQ Youth Advocacy and Capacity Building

CONNECTING YOUTH

Street outreach for homeless youth including pantry, housing support & case management

Peer Health & Education Leadership

Job readiness including resume writing, skills training and internship placement

Coalition of non-profit agencies (Kiki) provides community mobilization for LGBTQ youth

CHANGING SYSTEMS OF CARE

We work with teachers, school administrators, guidance and mental health counselors, after school providers and local government agencies to educate and inform policies that better support LGBTQ youth.
CREATING COMMUNITIES

HMI Goes City Wide
Strengthening mental health programs across NYC to support the development of healthy and thriving LGBTQ youth

Online Toolbox
Supporting other LGBTQ youth drop-in centers across the United States with HMI’s youth service methodologies packaged as online trainings, webinars, and interactive content

Virtual Programs
Replicating our model in an online platform offering youth facing programs

CONNECTING YOUTH

HMI Goes to College
Partnering with colleges and universities to create LGBTQ specific interventions designed to support our youth in enrollment and academic success

Queer Coders and Technology
Connecting youth to careers in Tech through internship programs to develop skills in computer programming and social media marketing

Health and Hygiene Suite
Building HMI’s first ever in-house medical suite with expanded shower and clothing pantry facilities

CHANGING SYSTEMS OF CARE

Continuing Education Units
Becoming a certified Continuing Education Unit (CEU) provider with credentialing bodies such as the National Commission for Health Education Credentialing (NCHEC) and the New York State Education Department (NYSED)

HMI Center for Advocacy and Training
Offering expanded LGBTQ inclusivity training to organizations or agencies that serve youth

Inclusive Workspaces
Creating LGBTQ-friendly workforce readiness programs and practices with government agencies and corporate partners
CREATING COMMUNITIES
CONNECTING YOUTH
CHANGING SYSTEMS OF CARE

1994

2019

The Hetrick-Martin Institute

Hetrick-Martin Institute
2 Astor Place, New York, NY 10003 • 212-674-2400 • www.hmi.org