

Saturday night's annual Hetrick-Martin Institute's School's Out benefit in Watermill broke records with over $600,000 raised and counting at Saturday's party, featuring synchronized swimmers with parasols and hunky mermen lounging around the pool. The paddle raise during dinner hosted by designer Dennis Basso brought in $150,000 and had everyone's arms in the air starting at $10,000 with Kelly Ripa and Mark Consuelos the first to raise their paddle.

